Biography

Donna Niesen is a partner in Katz, Sapper & Miller's State and Local Tax Practice. She has been with the firm since 2005. Niesen provides a wide variety of tax consulting services in the areas of multistate sales and income taxes, business incentives, controversy services, and other state taxes. Her assistance on these projects includes negotiating settlements with taxing jurisdictions, coordinating multistate tax research, and assisting with complex multistate tax compliance. Before joining the firm, Niesen specialized in state and local tax consulting with two Big Four state and local tax practices for eight years, focusing on multistate income and sales tax issues.

Niesen's experience with state and local taxes in all 50 states enables her to effectively serve the firm's multistate clients in all domestic jurisdictions. She has significant experience assisting clients in the areas of manufacturing and distribution, financial services, life sciences, computer software and consulting firms, retail, healthcare, transportation and logistics, and other industries.

Niesen is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Indiana CPA Society. Additionally, she serves on the Indiana Manufacturers Association's Tax Committee and is a member of Keep Indianapolis Beautiful's Young Professionals Group.
